We owe you some money

Dear Lucia Eugenia Condori Morochi

22 February 2026

We've decided you're entitled to Universal Credit of £19166.22 from 9 April 2025 to 8 February 2026. This is because we did not pay you your full housing costs for the above period, and we also recalculated your transitional protection.

We've already paid you Universal Credit of £19150.72 from 9 April 2025 to 8 February 2026.

We owe you £15.50. This is the amount left after taking away the Universal Credit we've already paid you.

We'll pay £15.50 into your bank account.

We have issued an updated statement for this assessment period

This is to show what you should have been paid at the time. You have not been paid for this assessment period again.

You can find your new statement for this assessment period by selecting 'Payments' in the 'Payments and advances' section of your Universal Credit account. You can also view the older versions of your statement for this period.

Use your journal to contact us if you have any questions.

You can also call us on 0800 328 5644.

If you use Relay UK dial
18001 then 0800 328 5644.

To speak to an agent in Welsh, call 0800 328 1744.

If you would like Braille,
British Sign Language, a hearing loop, translations, large print, audio or something else, call 0800
328 5644.

Lines are open Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm.

If you were underpaid in multiple assessment periods

Please turn over

The amount shown in this letter is split across those assessment periods.

You must tell us about changes

Reporting changes in your circumstances is something you committed to do in return for receiving Universal Credit. You need to tell us promptly about any changes in your circumstances that might affect your payments.

Help and advice

Contact us if you have any questions about this.

Yours sincerely,

Universal Credit

If you disagree with a decision

You can ask us to explain why

You, or someone who has the authority to act for you, can phone us or use your journal to request a written explanation. You will need to do this within one month of the date of this letter.

You can also ask us to reconsider a decision

Tell us if you have more information, or if you think we have overlooked something which might change the decision. Do this within one month of the date on this letter.

We will look at what you tell us and send you a letter to tell you what we have decided, and why. We call this letter a Mandatory Reconsideration Notice.

When you have done this you can appeal

If you disagree with the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice, you can appeal to a tribunal.

You must wait for the Mandatory Reconsideration Notice before you start an appeal.
