5th July 2024

Dear Employee,

A Warm Welcome from Exclusive Contract Services Ltd part of the Exclusive Group Ltd

Following the recent communication from Nviro Limited, Exclusive Contract Services Ltd are delighted to be partnering with the University of East London to provide cleaning services to their business.

With Exclusive Services Group, you will be joining a great team of people. With over 2,500 employees, we are a leading provider of cleaning services within the UK.

We are always excited to welcome new joiners to our business and we look forward to meeting you over the weeks ahead.

We understand that people will naturally worry during times of change but between now and the time you transfer to us on 1st August 2024, and in partnership with Nviro Limited, we will do all we can to ensure we keep you informed about our plans, how they affect you and what you can look forward to by becoming an employee of Exclusive Services Group.

As part of our obligations under TUPE we are required to consult with you over the transfer arrangements, therefore we are inviting you to meet with your Group Human Resources Director – Lisa Hylton on the following days.

- Tuesday, 9th July 2024 – Docklands Campus
- Wed, 10th July 2024 – Stratford Campus

Please be advised that your Contract Manager Luis Oviedo will let you know at what time you need to attend the meeting and also meeting room number. If this meeting date and time would not be possible to attend, please contact Luis Oviedo – LOviedo@nviro.co.uk as soon as possible.

What's next?

In the next couple of days, you will receive email communication from our digital onboarding partners, UComply. You will receive a link to onboarding documentation, for your completion, along with the ability to upload your identification documents needed for your commencement.

Please note whilst completing the online forms you must click on the “reload” button at the top of the page after completing each page for this to be uploaded.

We will be in touch with you soon to provide more details about us, our goals and values and an update on our plans for the weeks ahead.

We very much look forward to meeting you and working with you.

Yours sincerely
